PACKING OF BARE ROOT ROSES:

Charges made for packing bare root roses will be the actual cost of material used. They will be packed in polyethylene lined boxes. The roses will be in better condition when received and the weight reduction will lower the freight cost 20%.

Terms: 30 days net to customers of established credit, otherwise 25% deposit with order, balance C.O.D.

Claims: Claims for damaged, shortage or variance in grade should be made within 5 days after delivery.

Delivery: Shipment will start October 1st and continue through April 15th. Our own modern cold storage will keep the plants in excellent condition for the necessary late deliveries.

Volume Shipments: On volume shipments of truck loads or more call LYric 4-4704, or write for special prices and delivery rates.

Budding Contracts: We solicit your budding contracts on large or small quantities and patented or standard varieties.
